Chapter 1 by thefluffyone

I rushed through the woods, being torn up, but I didn't mind it. I mean, I did mind it, but it wasn't important right now. Right now only one thing mattered- stay alive. There were 6 of us, in the beginning, but now only three of us are still standing. Me, Grey, and that other one, whose name I can't remember. Yet I still know where none of them are. How I know they're still alive, I don't know. I just kind of... feel it. And maybe I'm wrong. But if you know me well, you know I'm never wrong.

He ran behind me, and when he first came, I thought it was Grey, or Eli, or maybe someone else, but now I understand that I was wrong. Now I know the thing behind me... it is not human.

Just a little longer, just a little longer.

Just one more step and I'll be there.

Then I fall.
